Recent consulting work:

Herb Long, Rogue Valley Citizens Council, Ashland, Oregon. 541-552-0124.

Ssocial justice work, specifically in financial and healthcare reform, both in person and online. Wrote articles, supporting the 'buy local/bank local' movement, provided press & publicity, media contacts, and art design of fliers and other RVCC materials, initiated and established the RVCC blog.

Rich Lang, The Omega Center, Ashland, Oregon. 541-941-4394 info@the-omega-center.org

I began working with Rich in early 2010. I created business and fundraising plans, rebranded, repositioned, organized a Board of Directors, updated the website (adding PayPal and credit cards for ease of giving), began social marketing, helped to create a brochure and organize a fundraising package for grant-writing proposals, began Media and PR for The Omega Center, worked on program development and SOU.

Peter Gans, Integrated Functions, Hawaii. 949-689-7405 fundinghawaii@gmail.com

Peter and John (real estate partners) hired me to manage their residential development projects on the Big Island of Hawaii: provide due diligence and analysis, coordinate with builders, contractors, architects, review contracts, pay bills, handle the partnership accounting and distribution, etc.

Sharyn Stone, Maui Vacation Rental Association, Maui, Hawaii. 808-573-0914 dreamers@maui.net

Sharyn was my 'boss' during the transition of their President, David Dantes...during a turbulent time, immediately after the Mayor decided to shut down all vacation rentals and MVRA began its lawsuit against the County of Maui (2007). I was hired to work with David and key players to develop a strategic plan to implement the organization's objectives and coordinate member and community efforts, to meet with and engage community and influential leaders and build coalitions to advance MVRA goals, to engage the impacted community (B&B & TVR owners) and mitigate damage, to specify short and long term economic impacts, coordinate media and PR with their video and ad man, produce a documentary, and make recommendations to increase image, energy, and revenue, and to create synergy and momentum.

Tim Orden, Videographer/Photographer, Honolulu, Hawaii

Tim brought me aboard due to my work in political campaigns & personal relationship with Charmaine Tavares, to secure the first in-depth interview of her tenancy as Mayor of Maui and produce the video for release. I have since worked with Tim on other campaigns including production for a documentary on Hana, media consulting, and repositioning of a Maui non-profit corporation.
